

The Miami Herald

AUGUST 10, 2008

The Florida Association of the American Institute of Architects has named Zyscovich Architects the Florida Firm of the Year.

The award recognizes outstanding achievement in design, community services, education and service to architecture by an architectural firm.

Included in Zyscovich's project submissions for Florida Firm of the Year were the Miami Beach Convention Center District Redevelopment Plan; Lincoln Cinema; Florida International University's College of Education; the 500 block of Collins Avenue; Flamingo South Beach condo; Pompano Beach High School master plan; Midtown Miami Master Plan; Miami High School master plan and historic renovation; and DDA Downtown Miami master plan update.

Zyscovich Architects is at 100 N. Biscayne Blvd., downtown Miami.

For information, go to www.zyscovich.com or call 305-372-5222.