Miami Downtown Development Authority kicks off holiday season with Christmas tree lighting

MIAMI (WSVN) - The Magic City showed off some lovely lights for the holidays.

The Miami Downtown Development Authority kicked off the jolly season with its annual Christmas tree lighting.

7News cameras captured the 24-foot Christmas tree on Flagler Street and Southeast Third Avenue decorated in lights.

As part of the special event, the Miami Symphony Orchestra and New World School of the Arts students held a free concert for guests who attended the tree lighting.

Children who attended got treated to face painting, a petting zoo and a bounce house.
