

Rising health insurance costs affecting local companies

January 22, 2018 07:00 AM

Updated January 19, 2018 05:18 PM

This week's question to South Florida CEOs who are on the Miami Herald CEO Roundtable: How is the ongoing instability in affordable health provisions affecting your company?

===

Any changes to the Affordable Care Act will certainly have an impact on a company of our size. When the ACA was initially passed, we had more than a year to analyze its effects and prepare for its implementation. If and when any legislative action is taken, we will again do our due diligence, adjust accordingly and make it as easy a transition as possible for our employees.

Kim Stone, general manager and EVP, AmericanAirlines Arena