

Miami Herald

BUSINESS MONDAY

January 7, 2018

UMV: 8,942,930

Storms — and earthquake — tested some CEOs' and employees' resolve

JANUARY 07, 2018 06:00 AM

UPDATED JANUARY 04, 2018 12:54 AM

We haven't seen any direct impacts on our company as a result of the post-storm challenges. As Puerto Rico and parts of the Caribbean recover, many who have been displaced are coming to Miami to be with friends and family, and rebuild their lives. We welcome them with open arms, both as guests of our arena and as potential candidates for new hire. The Miami Heat Charitable Fund, Carnival and the Arison family have also been very generous in supporting relief efforts, pledging up to $10 million in hurricane relief.

Kim Stone, general manager and EVP, AmericanAirlines Arena

KIM STONE is general manager and executive vice president of the AmericanAirlines Arena and a 20-year veteran of the Miami HEAT organization.